MAIL BALLOT VOTING

The option to vote by mail ballot is available to all eligible electors.

To vote by mail ballot, you must submit the Application to Vote by Mail form to the City of Langley by mail (Chief Election Officer, Administration Department, Langley City Hall, 20399 Douglas Crescent, Langley, BC V3A 4B3), fax (604-514-2838), or email (pkusack@langleycity.ca). The form is available online at langleycity.ca/election.

Mail ballot packages will be available for pick up in-person at the Administration Department on or about September 28, 2026, and will be mailed by October 2, 2026.

If an elector's application to vote by mail is received after September 29, the mail ballot package will be available for pick-up at Langley City Hall only, to allow sufficient time for the mail ballot package to be provided, completed, and returned.

To be counted for the election, completed mail ballots must be received by the Chief Election Officer before 8:00 p.m. on General Voting Day October 17, 2026.

AVAILABILITY OF LIST OF ELECTORS APPLYING TO VOTE BY MAIL

A list of the electors who apply to vote by mail will be maintained by the Chief Election Officer. The list will be available for public inspection at Langley City Hall, Administration Department, 2 floor, 20399 Douglas Crescent, during regular office hours Monday to Friday, excluding statutory holidays, until 3:00 p.m. on October 16, 2026. Before inspecting the list, a person must sign a statement that they will not inspect the list or use the information included in the list except for the purposes of Part 3 – Electors and Elections of the Local Government Act. An elector who has applied to receive a mail ballot may request that their address or other personal information about them be obscured or omitted from this list by contacting the Administration Department at 604-514-4585.

CHALLENGE OF AN ELECTOR VOTING BY MAIL

A challenge of a person's right to vote by mail ballot may be made in accordance with section 126 of the Local Government Act until 3:00 p.m. on October 15, 2026. A challenge may only be made by a person entitled to be registered as an elector of the City of Langley, or a candidate representative, or an election official, and can only be made on the basis that a person whose name appears on the list of electors who have applied to vote by mail is not entitled to vote or has contravened section 161(3) of the Local Government Act (accepting inducements).

ELECTOR REGISTRATION

To vote, you must be registered either as a resident elector or a non-resident property elector of the City of Langley. The City of Langley uses the provincial voters list as its list of electors. If you are on the list of electors, you are automatically registered to vote.

If you are not on the list of electors, you may register at the time of voting by completing the application form available at the voting location and making a declaration that you meet the requirements to be registered as set out below:

RESIDENT ELECTORS:

To register as a resident elector you must:

- be 18 years of age or older on general voting day October 17, 2026;
- be a Canadian citizen;
- be a resident of British Columbia for at least 6 months immediately before the day of registration;
- be a resident of the City of Langley on the day of registration; and
- not be disqualified under the Local Government Act or any other enactment from voting in an election or assent voting and not otherwise disqualified by law.

NON-RESIDENT PROPERTY ELECTORS:

To register as a non-resident property elector you must:

- be 18 years of age or older on general voting day October 17, 2026;
- be a Canadian citizen;
- be a resident of British Columbia for at least 6 months immediately before the day of registration;
- be a registered owner of real property in the City of Langley for at least 30 days immediately before the day of registration;
- not be entitled to register as a resident elector; and
- not be disqualified under the Local Government Act or any other enactment from voting in an election or assent voting and not otherwise disqualified by law.

In addition, for non-resident property electors:

- The only persons who are registered owners of the property, either as joint tenants or tenants in common, are individuals who are not holding the property in trust for a corporation or another trust.
- If more than one person is registered owner of the property, only one of those individuals may, with the written consent of the majority of the owners, register as a non-resident property elector.

In addition, to register at time of voting:

Resident electors must produce 2 pieces of identification (at least one with a signature), or a combination of identification and a solemn declaration, as to place of residency. Picture identification is not necessary.

Non-resident property electors must produce 2 pieces of identification (at least one with a signature) to prove identity, proof that they are entitled to register in relation to the property, and, if there is more than one owner of the property, written consent from the other property owners.

If you apply to vote by mail and are not on the list of electors, the required elector registration form(s) will be included in your mail ballot package to be completed and returned with your mail ballot.

TYPES OF DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE ACCEPTED AS IDENTIFICATION

Following is an example of the documents that will be accepted as evidence of identity and residency:

- Driver's Licence issued by ICBC (The combined Driver's Licence and Services Card is considered one (1) piece of ID)
- BC Identification Card or BC Services Card or BC CareCard
